Sign Dedicated to Former Black Farmers

On September 26 approximately 60 people attended the dedication of the Lincoln Hill sign commemorating the African American farmers who lived in Hinesburg from 1790-1890.

Town Clerk Missy Ross stands in front of the sign with Langley Proctor of Natick, Mass., a descendant of one of those farmers.

Elise Guyette, author of the book Discovering Black Vermont: African American Farmers in Hinesburg, 1790 – 1890, and Ed Booth, of Huntington, who, with Natacha Liuzzi of Brown Dog Books and Gifts, coordinated the event.

Hinesburg Entrepreneurs Wanted!

By Alex Weinhausen,
Director of Planning and Zoning

Are you ready to expand your business? Do you have a new business venture simmering on your back burner? Opportunity is knocking! On September 16, the Saputo property was sold to Redstone, a Burlington-based commercial real estate, development and property management group. This sale heralds a new chapter for this key 15.4 acre property in the center of our village area. What had been a single-use industrial complex for many, many years will likely become home to a variety of industrial, commercial, office uses – i.e., multiple businesses using different portions of the property and buildings. Some residential uses may even be possible on portions of the property that are currently undeveloped.

Redstone is actively showing various buildings and portions of the property to potential business tenants and buyers. They purchased the property for quite a bargain ($575,000), and have stated that the purchase price is only a small part of their investment; i.e., they plan to put in a lot of additional resources/spending to help redevelop the site. Redstone is a major developer that has the resources and expertise to help a perspective business successfully locate on this prime piece of real estate.

Community Vision vs. Market Reality

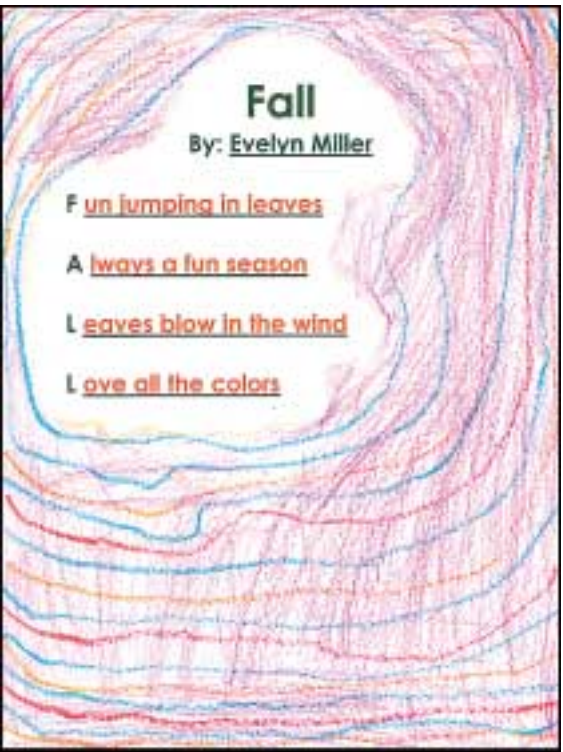

In keeping with the work of the Saputo Redevelopment Steering Committee, the Planning Commission (PC) and I have been discussing a vision for the Saputo/Redstone property that calls for different types of uses on the Route 116 side (front and center) versus the bulk of the developed area (i.e., main building) to the west. We envisioned livelier uses closer to Route 116 that would draw the public to the site and better connect it to the rest of the village. Both the PC and

In Support of Bill Lippert

We want to express our strong support for Bill Lippert for the position of Hinesburg Representative to the Vermont Legislature. Bill has held this position for a number of years and has clearly demonstrated his ability to be a very active, well informed, thoughtful and successful Representative. He frequently solicits opinions from local residents, he listens carefully to the suggestions and then effectively and eloquently takes action to promote them when appropriate. Please vote for Bill Lippert.

Carrie and Dave Fenn

As long-time Hinesburg residents, we are writing to recommend that our town send Bill Lippert back to Montpelier for a ninth term. This last session, Bill was closely involved in the judicial restructuring that reduces operating costs while ensuring adequate access to the court system. His interest in farming in Vermont has led him, most recently, to be active in developing legislation to expand sales of safe, raw milk, something that helps both old and new dairy farmers reach a growing market.

Bill has shown himself accessible and responsive in our experience and that of other Hinesburgers we know. In at least one case, he took the time to visit a local business to assess the effect of a state law in the making, something the owner had never experienced before with a legislator.

Let's not lose eight terms of experience in Montpelier.

Kate and Bill Schubart

In Support of Monica Breer

If you agree the recent Vermont Legislature, with a super majority of one party, accomplished next to nothing for the average Vermonter except to take the State to the brink of financial collapse then you might agree we need new representation.

If you think too much of the Legislature's time and energy went into crafting boutique legislation rather than ensuring the checks and balances of government remained strong and accountable we're fortunate to have a candidate for Hinesburg who doesn't have pet agendas.

If you are finally realizing that the politicians and special interests that want to shut Vermont Yankee down don't actually have a viable cost effective alternative to keeping the lights on it's about time we elected a rational person from Hinesburg who looks at energy issues also in terms of dollars and cents.

Monique Breer is the real alternative. I'm confident in her ability to serve all of Hinesburg. I'm excited about the prospect of being represented by a determined young woman and I know her efforts in the Legislature would be more in tune with the needs of most Hinesburg citizens. Please help elect Monique Breer to the Vermont Legislature for Chittenden 1-1 / Hinesburg.

Sincerely,

Roger Donegan

Why Support Monique Breer? We have recently learned (again) in both Washington and Montpelier that supermajorities don't work. In a Democracy it is always important for the loyal opposition to have a voice. Partisanship in our state legislature has gotten way out of balance. Unfortunately, one of the legislature's most partisan members has been the representative from Hinesburg, who consistently votes the party line to support special interests, squelch business incentives and raise taxes, while ignoring the concerns of his local constituents. Bill Lippert has served those special interests well and has earned a long and pleasant retirement from politics.

Monique Breer offers a common sense alternative. She plans to work energetically for a sustainable budget, lower taxes, and increased economic opportunities. And she will listen to local concerns. Let's give her an opportunity to serve.

Leonard Duffy

Candidate's Statement

Vermont has done better than most states in weathering the recession of 2008-2010, but we have not been untouched. While numerous and innovative entrepreneurial enterprises have sprung up during the last decade in Vermont, we have also seen huge reductions of personnel by major employers and the closure of smaller manufacturing enterprises. Reductions in both residential and commercial building activity have cost building trades jobs. Decreased tax revenues have resulted in state employee cutbacks while the need for services has increased. Clearly, job creation in Vermont is a key to keeping Vermont's economic and social fabric healthy.

As a State Representative, I would favor:

- tax credits for increasing the number of employees from one year to the next.

- creation of low-interest loans funded through bonding for startup businesses.
 - a temporary reduction of the statewide property tax on new businesses to help reduce startup costs.
- Beyond tax policy, there are other steps we can take to improve conditions for economic growth.
- Some type of public option, universal health insurance program, possibly a single-payer system, would help reduce the costs of health insurance to both businesses and individuals. I'm looking forward to the proposals of the Health Care Commission created by the legislature.
 - Access to high-speed broadband throughout Vermont is essential if we want to grow twenty-first century businesses.
 - We need to encourage the growth of distributed, renewable energy resources.
 - We need to maintain high education standards so that we have a workforce with the skills businesses need.

I would appreciate your support in November and, if elected, I will do my best to look for opportunities to promote investment and take advantage of the talent and the attractiveness Vermont offers without sacrificing our environment or our responsibilities to those in need of help. Please visit www.MikeYantachka.com for more information or call me at 425-3960.

Mike Yantachka

Candidate for State Representative Chit 1-2 (Charlotte-Hinesburg)

In Support of Mike Yantachka

I am writing to support Mike Yantachka's bid to represent Chittenden District 1-2 in the Vermont State Legislature. I feel well qualified to recommend Mike, because we worked closely together on the 2010 Census this past spring and summer and I got to know him well.

Mike has an outstanding work ethic, and is a dedicated and accurate worker. He connects well with people, an attribute that is vital to representing a large group. Judging by the quality and quantity of his output, and the integrity he demonstrated, if I were asked to do an employee evaluation, it would conclude "exceeds expectations."

A large part of Mike's campaign has been the commitment to knock on every door at least once. He accomplished this during the run-up to the primary. I am sure that, should you want to get to know him better, he would be more than happy to stop by to talk at your convenience.

Unfortunately, I live just outside his district so will not be able to cast my vote for him on Election Day. I do, however, urge you to support him on November 2, secure in the knowledge that you will be well-represented in Montpelier.

Join the Front Porch Forum

Hello Hinesburg neighbors,

In addition to reading the printed Hinesburg Record, I also appreciate having Front Porch Forum (FPF) as a new electronic means of connecting our Hinesburg community. Front Porch Forum has designated four electronic Hinesburg neighborhoods: Hinesburg Village, South Hinesburg, Sunset Lake and Lake Iroquois. You do have to have an email address and access to a computer, to participate.

Recently a few neighbors in the South Hinesburg Front Porch Forum area where I live, have been sharing information on FPF about unusual bear sightings in back yards, near homes or even on the decks of several houses. Some of us have decided to "map" the bear sightings, to keep track of these unusual incidents. If you are not yet on FPF, but you too have had a bear near your house tearing down a birdfeeder or visiting your deck, let us know. Some of us have been feeding birds for over 25 years without a bear incident, but recently have had to change this due to the arrival of bears near our homes.

If you do not yet participate in Front Porch Forum, I want to put in a plug for joining. It is easy and information can be found at FrontPorchForum.com.

Of course, FPF has also helped folks find referrals for plumbers, recently a new home for a goldfish, sales of fresh vegetables and many more neighborly announcements. I strongly encourage every Hinesburg resident who is new to town or who has been here forever, to join up with your Front Porch Forum neighborhood.

I'll look for you in the electronic neighborhood. And let me know if you too have had recent bear sightings near your home.

While you are on your computer, check out the new Facebook page for the Town of Hinesburg at www.facebook.com/townofhinesburg, recently created by Jeanne with help from Aaron Kimball. Another great place to keep track of Town doings. Wendy Patterson recently posted a sweet video of a short walk she took through Hinesburg

Letter Policy

The Hinesburg Record welcomes letters from local residents and from others who are involved in issues that affect our town. The opinions expressed in the Letters to the Editor are those of the writers.

All letters must be signed. Addresses and phone numbers must also be provided for verification purposes. Addresses and phone numbers will not be published.

Letters should be brief. We do not have precise guidelines for length but reserve the right to edit based on available space. To the extent possible, letters should focus on local issues. Other forums exist for discussions of statewide, national and international issues.

With these cautions, please keep these letters rolling in. Send them via email to therecord@gmavt.net, mail them to The Hinesburg Record, P.O. Box 340 or to 327 Charlotte Road, Hinesburg, VT 05461, or deliver them to the Record drop box on Charlotte Road.

Redstone agree that the existing building closest to Route 116 and near the Canal (over 4,000 square feet on two floors) is an excellent space for this sort of high value, destination use (e.g., brew pub, restaurant, etc.). However, neither the developer nor the PC dictates the market or who knocks on Redstone's door. In fact, at the September 21 PC meeting, Redstone indicated that they planned to show that building to a potential tenant interested in office space – a reasonable use perhaps, but certainly not a destination use per the vision.

As the PC drafts permanent zoning for this property, they will likely allow a fair amount of flexibility in terms of the allowed uses in order to bolster the redevelopment potential for the property (e.g., restore tax base, add jobs, etc.). So...what do we do if zoning is unlikely to prescribe a specific use or business that best matches our vision?

There are a LOT of creative, talented, and entrepreneurial Hinesburgers out there! The best way to realize our vision is for community members to help make it happen directly. Is one of our local restaurants ready to expand into a larger location? Is Hinesburg ready for its own brew pub like the VT Pub and Brewery or the Bobcat Café? Worried about the availability of credit and going it alone? Just as local agriculture has blossomed through the use of Community Supported Agriculture (CSAs), there are similar models for community supported restaurants (Claire's in Hardwick, Bee's Knees in Morrisville, etc.).

There are people in Hinesburg with resources who might be very willing to invest in a new business venture and help with start-up funds, thereby reducing how much money needs to be borrowed through traditional bank financing. Redstone is currently marketing and showing the property. If we want local businesses and local ownership to help keep dollars circulating longer in our local economy, we need community members with the ideas, the will and the resources to step up to the table. Interested? You can reach Redstone at 658-7400 and on-line at www.redstonevt.com. The primary Redstone contact we've been working with is Doug Nedde. You can reach him at 658-7400 ext. 11 or via cell phone at 343-4110 or via e-mail at dnedde@redstonevt.com.

Town Forest's Eagle's Trail Restored to Use

By Stewart Pierson

Visitors to either of the two principal entrances to the Hinesburg Town Forest are welcomed by an elaborate map showing all its trails. Many of these have been recently built by the Fellowship of the Wheel for mountain biking. Also shown and most noticeable among them is the EAGLE'S TRAIL which winds its way from the Hayden Hill East parking area to the Economou Road entry and parking area. The Eagle's Trail then follows an old roadway to the western entry (Hayden Hill West) where a logging road walk leads back down to Hayden Hill East.

The Hinesburg Town Forest has been part of town life for many years. It has been hunted, snowmobiled, ATVed, mountain biked, horse ridden, logged, replanted and explored. In the late 1980's and early 1990's, it became the focus of Troup 690 and its leaders: David T. Lovering and Russell Burger. Jason Ketcham selected the construction of the Eagle's Trail as his community service requirement for this highest rank in scouting. Jason completed the trail in 1991.

Over the years, maintenance of the trail was neglected. Its 1991 white blazes had all but disappeared by the mid 2000's. As the only footpath, it could still be discerned by an alert hiker. However, in the summer of 2005 the creation of well marked mountain bike trails introduced the first addition to the Town Forest trails and, inadvertently, an element of confusion for the less experienced first time hiker. The promise of the trail head maps had become a sham.

This loss has been reversed, however, by Colin McNaull’s leadership of the Hinesburg Trail Committee’s summer project. Red blazes with white directional arrows and the prominent letter ‘E’ will lead hikers from the Hayden Hill East entrance to Economou Road. Red blazes will soon lead from Economou Road to the Hayden Hill West entry and then back down to Hayden Hill East. The markers are scheduled to be put up on the complete Eagle Trail loop by the time the snow covers the ground.

About the trail: It is roughly three miles long, requiring about two hours to complete. It is rated “easy to moderate” with only modest inclines.

There are four interesting landmarks: Starting from Hayden Hill West, roughly 0.4 miles brings one to Turtle Back Rock. Fifty yards past this is a stand of maple trees: Maple Glen. Another 0.7 miles further The Resting Rock awaits the tired hiker. (The original signage still hangs) Lastly a stand of red pines Lovering’s Corridor remembers the scout leader David T. Lovering.

All this work has been under the supervision of the recently reconstituted Town Forest Committee of which Kristen Sharpless is the chair. That committee meets the first Wednesday of each month at 5:30 p.m. in the Town Hall lower meeting room.

Thus one of Hinesburg’s jewels is restored to full usefulness. (Information about the Eagle’s Trail comes from the 1999 Eagle’s Trail Guide.)

The Growing Together Community Garden Completes Successful Year

By Sahra Aschenbach

The Growing Together Community Garden in Hinesburg is completing its first season on November 1. Gardeners began harvesting an abundance of very fresh organic vegetables in mid-June, such as peas, which were soon followed by beans and greens, chard and spinach, several varieties of lettuce, then beets and carrots. The very warm and dry July, August and September brought cabbage, potatoes, corn, eggplant, multi-colored peppers and an abundance of ever blooming tomatoes of all sizes, shapes and colors.

We kept away garden pests by planting marigolds and nasturtiums, basil, mint and caraway. We grew fall and winter snacks for the bird population by planting giant sunflowers. For beauty, there were the tall, bright ever-blooming zinnias and the sunflowers gently swaying in the warm summer breezes.

When we started our gardens in May, on land donated and prepared by our sponsors, Community Alliance Church, it was hard to imagine how much produce would become staples in our daily meals. Most of us grew enough food to feed not only our families and friends, but each week we were able to donate the overflow of crops to the Hinesburg Emergency Food Shelf. By mid-September we had donated more than 300 pounds of produce, which included 60 pounds of tomatoes, 98 pounds of zucchini, and 32 pounds of squash, which is still growing as I write in late September. Several gardeners are harvesting from fall plantings of peas, spinach, lettuce, carrots, beets and beans. In late October we will plant garlic for harvest next summer in July.

Many of our gardeners had little or no experience in gardening, prior to joining Growing Together Community Gardens. Many had gardened some years back until they noticed that their once sunny gardens had become shade gardens, not well suited to growing vegetables. I asked one of our first time gardeners what it was like for her to harvest fresh vegetables, prepare and eat them very fresh...all in less than 30 minutes. Ginny Hardy, who lives very near the gardens responded, “I enjoy reaping the fruits of my labor, which not only nourishes my body but I can share with others. I have learned new gardening techniques and how to prepare and preserve produce from our garden.”

How did these beginning gardeners learn to prepare the soil, plan the garden, purchase and plant seeds, learn the difference between weeds and seedlings and harvest at just the right moment of ripeness?

In January of 2010, Growing Together Community Gardens offered free gardening classes to Hinesburg residents who wanted to learn how to plant, grow and harvest their own organic vegetables and flowers. We invited Master Gardener Jean Kiedaisch, who lives and gardens in Hinesburg, who volunteered to teach Hinesburg residents who wanted to learn enough about gardening to grow their own vegetables, in their own garden or in the Community Garden.

Classes were hands-on and covered everything from planning your garden and ordering seeds for your favorite vegetables from a variety of organic seed catalogues, to creating raised beds, planting organic plants and seeds, composting with organic matter and worms, and mulching with straw for weed control. Some class members had previous gardening experience to share with others, which led to lively exchanges and lots of mutual support. Many of the gardeners and their families attended classes and used what they had learned to create individualized garden plans to meet the gardener’s unique needs.

The final Gardening Class met on a sunny and warm Saturday morning in early May. As we looked at the large field (50’x100’) that had been prepared by volunteers from Community Alliance Church, our sponsor, it was hard to imagine that in this one day we would create sixteen 12’x12’ gardens, ready to plant. It was even harder to imagine the baskets and bags of food we would harvest, eat, can, freeze and give away.

On that bright May day, gardeners gathered to turn over the soil, their first step to creating raised bed gardens. Volunteers gathered to measure, cut and attach donated lumber to create the 12’x4’ raised beds. They shoveled the prepared soil from the garden paths, creating planting beds deep enough (12”) to hold moisture and space for deep rooted crops and the gardens were ready to be planted. See above for what happened between planting and harvest

The venture has been successful and many of the gardeners will return for a second year. We expect to have five or six beds available for next spring. We are accepting registrations now.

If you want to know more about us or see photos of the gardeners at work, go to: <http://growingtoethergarden.wikispaces.com/> If you are interested in joining us for our 2011 season, please contact Sahra Aschenbach, Garden Coordinator at 482-3883 or sahra@gmavt.net for information or registration.

Man Violates Abuse Order

A Hinesburg man, Albert Chong, was served with Temporary Relief from Abuse Order on September 3 ordering him to stay away from his residence. Chong disregarded the order and returned in violation of the order and was arrested. Chong was taken to the correctional facility where he is currently being held on $5,000 bond. It was learned that Chong is in this country illegally. He is scheduled to appear in federal court in New York for a deportation hearing in late November.

DUI Detail Results in Marijuana Arrest

Officer Casco was participating in a DUI detail and observed a car being operated in an erratic manner. He stopped the car and smelled freshly burned marijuana as he approached the driver’s window. Casco obtained consent to search the vehicle and found a back pack containing a baggie with marijuana. The passenger, Hassan Ali of Burlington, admitted that the marijuana was his. He was taken into custody and cited for Possession of Marijuana.

Tip Leads to DLS and Marijuana Arrest

On September 8, Officer Chris Bataille received an anonymous call advising that a narcotics transaction was taking place in parking lot of Lantmans. The caller provided a description of the vehicle and the driver. Officers Brian Fox and Chris Bataille located the car after it left the parking lot and a traffic stop was made. It was determined that the driver, William Wright of Vergennes, was driving while criminally suspended. Wright was placed in custody and taken to the police station for processing. While at the station he was interviewed by Chief Silber. Wright provided a written consent to search his vehicle. A small amount of marijuana was found. Wright was charged with Criminal DLS and Possession of Marijuana.

Hinesburg Man Arrested for Assault

Police responded to Jourdan Street on September 9 to handle a disturbance. Upon arriving they found a woman with an injured hand and a car with a shattered front passenger window. Officer Barrows conducted an investigation and determined that Hinesburg resident John Bombard had gotten into an argument with his nephew Charles Ring. Bombard attempted to run his nephew off the road with his car and then allegedly broke his car window with a baseball bat. During the confrontation Bombard allegedly threw Ring’s girlfriend to the ground. Bombard fled the scene prior to the arrival of police.

Bombard was located a short time later at his mother’s home in Richmond. He responded to the Hinesburg police station where he provided a statement. According to Bombard, Ring had stolen money from his mother (Ring’s grandmother) and this was the cause of the dispute. Bombard is currently awaiting trial on a previous drug charge and one of the conditions of his release is that he not commit any other crimes. Bombard was charged with Violation of Conditions

Hinesburg Awarded Corrections Grant

The Department of Corrections recently awarded the Town of Hinesburg a grant funding a Community Justice Program. The purpose of this program is to provide an alternative to judicial review for first time offenders who have committed relatively minor infractions of the law. Each case will be reviewed by a Board consisting of Hinesburg residents. The Board will then decide the best course of action, taking into account victim input and the steps necessary to steer the offender away from continued misconduct.

Board members will receive training conducted by the Department of Corrections. Anyone interested in serving on the Community Justice Board is urged to contact Chief Fred Silber or Officer Chris Bataille at 482-3397.

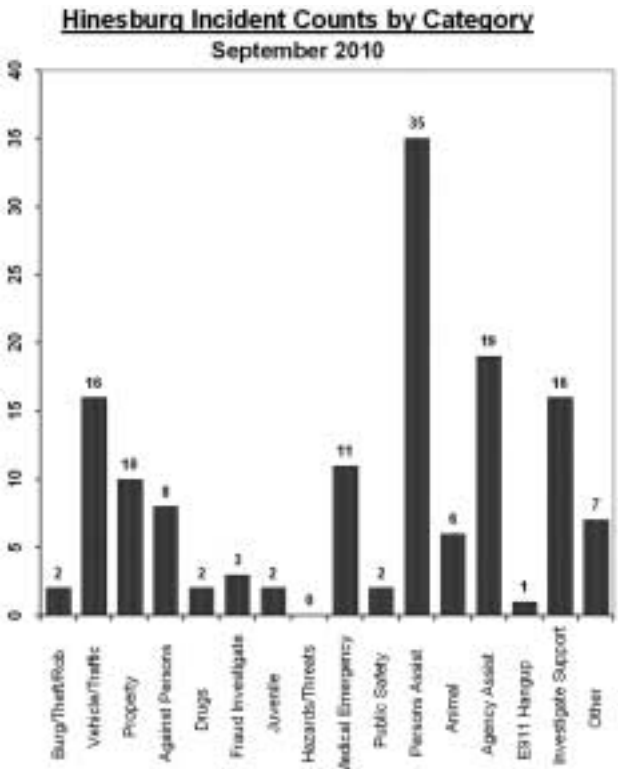

Cop Talk

This month we want to introduce you to the woman who makes sure that the Department runs smoothly and efficiently, our Administrative Assistant, Deb Koss. Deb started here as a volunteer, doing whatever was necessary to make the office a better place. A few months later, an opening developed and we needed someone to handle the administrative responsibilities at the station. Since she already knew what needed to be done, Deb took the job and hit the ground running. That was almost three years ago.

Since being here, Deb has revamped the evidence and filing systems, both of which were in serious need of updating. She oversees the office and makes sure that each of us has what we need to do our jobs. She greets all visitors who come to the office and makes sure that their problems are addressed by an officer, if needed. In a lot of ways, she is the glue that holds the office together. Deputy Chief Frank Koss is her husband, but that doesn't mean that she cuts him any slack (at least not around the office).

Deb is as much a part of the Department as any of our officers. She is our secretary, office mom, Evidence Custodian, Procurement Specialist and performs a host of other functions. So if you call the office or come by, say hi.

Annual Banquet and Awards

Hinesburg Fire Department’s annual banquet was held on September 26 at Cedar Knoll Country Club. It is an opportunity for the members of the department to spend some time together with our spouses and guests and to socialize away from the station.

We also take the opportunity to thank the many businesses and individuals within the community who support us during the year and our spouses and families for the many missed dinners and family events, and for pagers going off at all hours.

In 2010, we acknowledge the following members for their years of service: Jeremy Steele, five years; Amy Lyman, ten years; Jonathan Wainer, ten years; Kathy Gutierrez, 15 years; Chris Morrell, 15 years; Tom Boivin, 20 years; Randy Thompson, 25 years; Steve Aube, 30 years; and Dave Estey, 30 years.

Congratulations to John Lyman and Jeremy Steele for being awarded the Beyond the Call of Duty; and Frank Koss for the EMT Award of the Year. These two awards are to recognize a Firefighter and EMT within the department who have performed above and beyond during the past year. Only members with less than 20 years of service are eligible. The awards are voted on by the members by secret ballot during the annual meeting in January.

The Chief’s Award is presented by the Chief Officers to recognize a member or members whose deeds not only show their dedication to the department, but also to help improve the department standing in the community. This year, the Chief’s Award was presented to Jeremy Steele.

Change the Clock, Change the Battery

It’s hard to believe, but summer is over, Halloween is here, and that means in a few days it is time to change the clocks and fall back an hour. It also means it is time to change the batteries in your smoke detectors and test them once the batteries are changed.

Batteries should also be changed in your Carbon Monoxide (CO) detectors. The recommended detector is a plug in model with battery backup and digital readout. The detector should be tested monthly. The average life of a CO detector is five to seven years. If you have a CO detector with a manufacture date prior to November 1, 2003 it should be replaced. If the detector in your home sounds, immediately notify 911 and leave the house. Do not open windows or doors. By leaving them closed we are better able to find the source.

Faulty Dehumidifier Causes Fire

At 1:44 p.m. September 9, Shelburne Dispatch received a 911 call from a homeowner on Haymeadow Lane. The caller reported coming home to a house full of smoke, which appeared to be originating from the basement. The Hinesburg Fire Dept and Fire Response were dispatched.

The Hinesburg Highway Dept Crew was at the Fire Station at the time and assisted in rolling the apparatus to the scene. The Highway Dept Crew are members of the Fire Department and train with the department. This inter-departmental cooperation is extremely valuable during the day when many of our firefighters are at work.

Assistant Chief Silva arrived on scene and saw black smoke visible in the windows of the second floor. Upon further investigation from the exterior, the entire house was filled with black smoke and there was zero visibility as he looked in the ground floor windows. Asst Chief Silva established command and reported a working structure fire. Shelburne Dispatch re-toned Fire and First Response for a working incident and dispatched Charlotte Ambulance to the scene. Having an ambulance on scene is standard procedure for all working fires or major incidents.

While the fire was contained to the basement, access was limited from the interior of the house. Due to the smoke, crews had difficulty locating the door and stairs to the basement. Using a thermal-imaging camera, crews located and extinguished the fire in a corner of the basement. When the fire was located and knocked down, it had started to burn through the sheet rock and extend to the first floor beams.

Asst Chief Silva requested mutual aid from Starksboro and Charlotte Fire Depts for apparatus and man power. Crews were on scene for a couple of hours checking for extension and clearing the smoke from the home. There was minor fire and water damage, and extensive smoke damage. The cause of the fire was found to be a faulty dehumidifier in the basement.

Meet Frank Koss

Many of you know Frank Koss as Deputy Chief of the Hinesburg Community Police. Did you know that Frank is also a Firefighter and Emergency Medical Technician with the Hinesburg Fire Department?

Frank grew up in metropolitan Denver, CO. After graduating from high school, he enlisted in the Air Force. He trained in San Antonio, TX and Biloxi, MS before being stationed in Anchorage, AK. He left the Air Force early and transferred to the Alaska Air National Guard. It was at this time Frank took a job with the Anchorage International Airport as a police officer and crash rescue firefighter. While enjoying both aspects of community service, Frank leaned towards law enforcement. It was while working at the airport that Frank joined his first volunteer department, the Chugiak Volunteer Fire Department.

In 1978, Frank left the airport moving even further north to Prudhoe Bay. He spent the next four years in Prudhoe working as a security officer, responsible for patrolling fixed facilities, roads, and initial firefighting. He left in 1982 when he was hired by the California Highway Patrol. Unfortunately, since he was now in a metropolitan area, Frank’s volunteer fire career was put on hold.

While working with the C.H.P., Frank had an opportunity to take an Emergency Medical Technician Course after promoting to sergeant and being assigned to the Santa Cruz Area. After moving to a small town in the Santa Cruz Mountains, Frank met his wife Deb. The fire department was volunteer and Frank was there helping his community. He joined the Boulder Creek Volunteer Fire Department in July 2000. In 2003 Frank and Deb moved to Mount Shasta, where he became a member of the Mount Shasta Fire District.

After deciding to retire from the C.H.P. in 2005, Frank and Deb took a six-week cross country trip to find a place to retire. They traveled through the mid-west and New England and decided Vermont was the place they liked the most. After returning to California, Frank began to search for a local job in law enforcement. He applied for the Hinesburg Community Police Deputy Chief’s position and was interviewed. Even though he did not get the job, they loved Hinesburg so much that they decided to buy a home in town.

Once settled in, Frank joined the Hinesburg Fire Department as a Firefighter/EMT. Frank obtained his EMT Basic certification in the State of Vermont. He then attended the Intermediate course which he passed. Frank served as Medical Lieutenant in 2009 and is currently the Assistant Chief for Medical with the Hinesburg Fire Department.

Daily Siren Tests

Some folks have asked why the siren tests daily. It is to ensure it is operational daily as part of our Insurance rating and our emergency alerting plan. Although the test seems like it lasts a long time it is actually only one second in length. Should the siren sound for a cycle of four long blasts, that is the sign of an emergency notification needing to go out to the public, you should turn on your TV/ radios to local stations, call 211 and ask for any Hinesburg information or check your email if you are on the Hinesburg Police email network for details.

Fall Reminders

As usual a reminder goes out to you to replace your alerting devices, smoke and CO detectors and well as reminders they do have a limited life span, most are five years and most have dates stamped on them, if there is no date then it should be replaced. If you cannot afford to purchase one please contact a member of the fire department.

Green Street homes off the Charlotte Road, Kinney Drug and related buildings, Champlain Oil/Ballard's Store project. As these projects go forward the Fire Department as well as the Police Department are being pressed even harder for more services, respond to more calls and just generally more busy. Many of you were at the public meeting last fall to discuss the Fire Station expansion which also led to the discussions around the needs of the Police Department as well as the need for more space for public gatherings. It is the general consensus of the Fire Department members and Police Department that it is time to propose a bond to you, the voters, to build an addition on the current Fire Station to provide more space for us as well as space for the Police Department, public meetings and training space for Police and Fire Departments, moving to a true Public Safety facility.

I know that many folks feel we don't need the space but the reality is today we're cramped for day to day training space, storage space and meeting space. Tomorrow (which is really two years from now when completed) we will be completely out of space. Today we have equipment in the old fire station at the corner of 116 and Mechanicsville Rd as well as renting space at a local storage unit for our equipment.

As Chief a large part of my job is to look to the future, analyze the past and present and prepare us for the future, to ensure we will be able to handle what will be asked of us and most of all avoid unnecessary costs because we didn't have a plan for the future. I'm sure we will be having more public forums to talk about the bond as it nears. Please stay tuned for more information and join me in preparing for the future Hinesburg.

Brown Dog Books and Gifts Celebrates Second Birthday

By Jean Isham, HBPA

Two years ago, against economic odds, Natacha Liuzzi opened Hinesburg's first independent book store, Brown Dog Books and Gifts. Taking a chance and an opportunity, Natacha at last realized her dream.

Today Brown Dog Books and Gifts is a thriving local business offering a great selection of books for children and adults. Many of those books are by Vermont authors. The store also offers a unique selection of cards, many by local photographers. In addition, there are gift items including jewelry and art work handcrafted by local artisans as well as products from 130 Vermont vendors.

Giving back to the community, Brown Dog Books and Gifts offers several music nights throughout the year which are free and open to the public. Music nights primarily showcase local musicians. There continue to be regular book signings with both local and out of state authors—wonderful opportunities to hear an author read from his or her work, to ask questions and to have your book signed.

Natacha is delighted to have her daughter, Emma Liuzzi Pouech, serving as bookkeeper and manager of the store. They make a great team!

On November 13 starting at 7:00 p.m. Brown Dog Books and Gifts will host its Second Birthday Party featuring music by John Penoyar and Friends with Special Guest, free refreshments (culinary treats by Chef Joe Tomko) and giveaways. John Penoyar and Friends features music from mid-century America with John Penoyar on ukulele and guitar, Todd Sagar on chromatic harmonica and violin and Andrew Albright on Bass. Everyone is invited to join the party.

Brown Dog Books and Gifts is a fine example of a local business supporting the local community and vice versa. This is a great place to exercise your BUY LOCAL option.

Health Insurance Options for the Self Employed

By Steve Gladstone

In these tough economic times many people have made the choice to go into business for themselves. As a Hinesburg resident who made this choice I can relate to the concerns and doubts that one must address before you make the leap. One of the biggest issues that you must address is how to find affordable health care. If your coverage is no longer supplied through your employer you must go out into the market and find your own solution. I am here to report that thanks to the efforts of State of Vermont there are solutions available that are accessible and affordable for the average family.

As my job disappeared overnight in early 2009, and I had to solve the health insurance puzzle for my family, the feeling of panic at the sheer cost of insurance was mixed with confusion as I embarked on a crash course in health insurance. Never before had I needed COBRA, but I began to understand that COBRA allowed me to continue coverage with my past employer's health plan, thereby giving me time to determine my future options. That was immensely helpful, but it was not a long-term fix. Not only is COBRA coverage expensive, but by law it generally can only be utilized for a maximum of 18 months.

Along the way I discovered that my family qualified for Green Mountain Care health insurance which is offered by the state of Vermont and its partners Blue Cross Blue Shield and MVP Health Care. This was a huge turning point in my finding a long-term solution to my health care needs and gave me the comfort level needed to pursue self-employment.

Initially I thought I'd simply purchase a Catamount Health family plan, one of the plans under Green Mountain Care, but I soon learned that the state does not bundle health care coverage in the same way as the private sector. Each of the Green Mountain Care health plan have differing eligibility criteria. Our two children ended up with Dr. Dynasaur, while my wife and I qualified for Catamount Health from Blue Cross Blue Shield. I found this a la carte approach to coverage, as well as the entire process, rather confusing. But it was well worth the time and effort.

In our case when we crunched the numbers and looked at our options it worked best to opt into Green Mountain Care plans and pay out-of-pocket for some services. The beauty of Green Mountain Care is that the coverage is seamless regardless of the twists and turns of the economy. In other (Continued on the next page.)

words, as income goes up and down, so do the premiums. And as your needs go up and down, you can adjust the coverage you purchase.

My words of advice to others in similar situations is first of all, don't panic. COBRA can buy you time. Look into Green Mountain Care [www.GreenMountainCare.org or (800) 250-8427] and start the application process early. Although the application process is clunky and can be time consuming it was worth it. Apply early. If you know your job is going to end, you can apply up to 60 days beforehand. I started two months ahead and still had a tight scheduled. But the end result is a collective monthly premium that is far less than you will find on the open market. And best of all, the coverage has been excellent.

Happy Fall from the Recreation Department. Soccer is in full swing as I write this article. Half the Kindergarten class, 35 children, play Kindergarten Soccer this year. It's fun to report that our Hinesburg Recreation Department Soccer Program includes a total of 155 children from Kindergarten through Grade 6. Our committed and energetic soccer coaches make this level of participation possible. MANY THANKS go to these amazing soccer coaches: Jim Silvia, Ted Spring, Jada Barton, Hoyt McCuin, Josh Prue, Robert Gauthier, Rob O'Neil, Dave Brown, Mike Buscher, Josie Palmer-Leavitt, Jim Goldsmith, Pete Cahn, Sean O'Brien, Kevin Lewis, Kevin Smith, Roland Van Dyk, and Ray Steen. Outstanding work! Thanks Tom Giroux for lining the fields! As another successful soccer season begins to wind down, think about registering for Basketball. See you around town.

Youth Basketball

The youth basketball program is back for another year of fun and skill building. Getting out and playing is not only good exercise, but it helps make those long winter months more enjoyable. This program is open to those in grades K-6 and is held in the Hinesburg Community School gymnasium. All abilities are welcome. Children are grouped by age, not ability.

Kindergarten: Saturday 9:00 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Grades one and two boys and girls: Saturday 10:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m.

Girls having fun during Hinesburg Recreation Soccer program. Shown are Harper Mead, Asha Hickok, Grace Buzzell, Sarah Johnson, Emma Bissonnette, Julia Grant and Willa Holliday.

Grades three and four boys: Saturday 11:15 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and Wednesday evening 6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.
Grades three and four girls: Saturday 12:45 p.m. to 2:00 p.m. and Monday evening 6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.
Grades five and six boys: Saturday 8:00 a.m. to 9:00 a.m. and Tuesday evening 6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.
Grade five and six girls: Saturday 3:35 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. and Thursday evening 6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.
Please note that practice times are subject to change due to coaches' availability. You will be notified via e-mail prior to the season regarding any schedule changes. Thanks for your patience.

Dates: December 4 to February 5, 2011 for Kindergarteners, first and second graders
Dates (cont.): December 4 to February 19, 2011 for third through sixth graders
Fee is $25 until November 19 and $35 after.
There will not be any youth basketball on Saturday, February 12, 2011 due to Winter Carnival.

We Deliver

Free delivery of materials is available to Hinesburg residents who find travel or physical access to the library building difficult. The library also circulates books and tapes to seniors on the third Friday of each month at the Seniors Meal Site in the Osborne Hall behind the United Church of Hinesburg.

Trustee Meetings

The next Carpenter-Carse Board of Trustees meeting is scheduled for October 27 at 7:00 p.m. Please note new information on other upcoming trustee meetings: the November meeting has been changed to November 17 at 6:30 p.m.; the following meeting will take place on December 15 at 7:00 p.m. Trustee meetings are usually held on the fourth Wednesday of each month unless otherwise warned. All meetings are held at the library at 7:00 p.m. and are open to the public.

New Youth Services Librarian

Alice Stokes is our new Youth Services Librarian. She is pursuing her Master of Library and Information Science at Syracuse University through their distance learning program and will graduate in May. Alice lives in Burlington with her husband and three children. She is looking forward to meeting many Hinesburg children and caregivers and sharing her love of books. She has already started hosting preschool and toddler storytimes and has appreciated the warm welcome from kids and adults alike.

Ongoing Library Programs

Toddler Storytimes

Join Alice at 9:00 a.m. on November 2 and 16, and again on December 7 for books, songs and stories especially for children up to three years of age. Walk-ins are welcome.

Preschool Storytimes

Preschoolers aged three to five can drop by the library every Tuesday at 11:00 a.m. for stories, songs and games with Alice.

Thanksgiving Pajama Story Hour with Janet

Please visit the library and wear your comfy pajamas and slippers for a special Thanksgiving Day treat on Tuesday, November 23, 6:00 p.m. to 7: 00 p.m. Books to enjoy will include the lighthearted story, A Turkey for Thanksgiving by Eve Bunting. Also on the menu are flannel board activities, a short video and a make-and-take home Thanksgiving Day craft. And yes, a yummy snack will be served. Story hour is geared for children ages three to seven. Advance registration is helpful but not required. Call 482-2878.

YA Book Group

Anyone in grades 6-8 interested in joining the Young Adult (YA) Book Group is invited to come to the library on November 11 from 5:00 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. Come meet the new Youth Services Librarian, Alice Stokes, and help to plan YA group activities this year. The group will be meeting monthly to discuss books, help choose books for the library watch movies, play Wii and more. We’ll provide food and the space – you bring the ideas. Your input is needed!

Book Discussion Group

Avid readers may join our library’s book discussion group, which meets monthly in readers’ homes. The next meeting is scheduled for Thursday, October 21. The featured title is Where Rivers Change Direction by Mark Spragg. In November come and share in a discussion of the book Thinking in Pictures: my life with autism by Temple Grandin. Meetings begin at 7:30 p.m. Watch for posters or phone Earla Sue McNaul at 482-3347 for meeting location and for upcoming discussion dates. Please note that the group does not meet at the library.

Thank You, Thank You, Thank You!

Many thanks to all who contributed to another successful fall festival in Hinesburg. It was a wonderful day! The community was treated to some fine entertainment, and we are grateful to the many musicians who shared their talents. Town Hall transformed into an art gallery, delighting many visitors. More than 20 great vendors and non-profits filled the grounds surrounding Town Hall, offering much to those in attendance. Many visitors left the festival with treasures from the Hinesburg Land Trust yard sale.

The Land trust also presented a delicious dinner to conclude the day. We are very happy that so many chose to attend—it was great seeing families and friends having such fun and enjoying the many offerings. This day would not happen without many individuals giving their time and talents to the people of this community. We look forward to continuing this event in future years, and invite participation and suggestions from anyone who wants to become involved. New ideas are always welcome. Thank you to all who participated!

Star Power Takes Hold at HCS

The students and staff of the Hinesburg Community School recently showed that, in addition to being stars as individuals, we are able to work together as a community to form one large star—all in less than 15 minutes. PHOTO BY MATT KIHM

The HCS community kicked off the year by playing games that highlight just how important our core values that make up “Be a STAR” (Belonging, Sharing, Trust, Accepting Responsibility and Respect) are.

Representative Bill Lippert Joins Sixth Grade Team to Discuss Designing a Bill

Representative Bill Lippert joined the sixth^h grade team of Hinesburg Community School, taught by Paul Lasher and Angela Galyean, to discuss how a bill comes into existence. Students have been studying this process, while designing their own bills in a legislative simulation.

Representative Lippert shared a bill he sponsored in the past legislative session that allows people helping others with a portable defibrillator to be safe from lawsuits. He spoke about how a person came to him with a concern that people were afraid of using these devices for fear of possible lawsuit.

Vermont State Representative Bill Lippert and HCS sixth graders explore the process of writing a bill that might someday become law.Photo Courtesy of Paul Lasher

The bill was passed out of committee with an 11-0 vote and went on to become a law through Governor Douglas.

Students brainstormed possible ideas for new bills, with ideas such as not allowing smoking in public places and ending animal abuse. The real-world connection between what they had been learning and how it actually is put into action proved to be a hit for all involved.

Hope to see you then!

Vermont Kids Against Tobacco (VKAT) at HCS

The Hinesburg Community School has a very active Vermont Kids Against Tobacco group. Students work with VKAT Advisor Lynn Camara to educate themselves, their peers, younger students and the community at large about the dangers of tobacco products.

VKAT hosts nationwide campaigns at HCS including: Red Ribbon Week, Smoke Free Zone, Kick Butts Day, the Great American Smokeout, 8outof10 and Butts of Hollywood.

The group is open to fifth through eighth graders at HCS and meets on Fridays from 11:05 to 11:45 a.m. in the Family and Consumer Sciences room. Anyone interested in joining VKAT should contact Lynn at 482-6266 or email her at lcamara@cssu.org.

The Goals of the VKAT Program are:

1. Reduce youth smoking rates

- Educate younger grades about the dangers of smoking.
- Make your peers aware of alternatives to smoking.
- Raise awareness about advertising and marketing of tobacco products.
- Change norms around tobacco use... let people know that it is cooler NOT to smoke or chew.
- To contribute to the goal of the Vermont Department of Health by helping cut smoking rates, for both youth and adults, by 50% in Vermont by 2010.

Future Kindergarteners: We Can't Wait to Meet You!

The Hinesburg Community School is currently engaged in an effort to create an accurate census of preschool-aged children, so that we can be ready for these future HCS students when they join us for the amazing journey that is kindergarten.

This planning has traditionally been based on birth-rate data alone, but given the amount of new construction in town, we would like to try to create what we hope will be a more accurate picture by asking you to get in touch with us now.

If your child was born between September 2005 and August 2007, please call our school secretary, Deb Lavalette, at 482-6214 to make sure that your child appears on our list.

Children entering kindergarten in the Fall of 2011 will typically have been born between September 2005 and August 2006.

Children entering kindergarten in the Fall of 2012 will typically have been born between September 2006 and August 2007.

If you have family, friends, and neighbors with preschoolers, please help us by passing this message on to them. Thank you!

Hinesburg Swimmers Make a Splash

Hinesburg students Grace, Sam and Jonathan Buzzell helped propel the Burlington Tennis Club (BTC) this summer to impressive victories at both the Champlain Valley Swim League Championships (CVSL) and Vermont Swim Association (VSA) State Championships. The family competed in the Champlain Valley Swim League, racing from mid-June to early August.

At the CVSL Championships, Grace took home first, third, and fifth place finishes in the eight-year-old category. Sam took two third place finishes in the ten-year-old category, along with a fifth and eighth. Jonathan excelled in the highly competitive 12-year-old category with a third place finish and two fourth place finishes. The points the Buzzell family earned for their club helped qualify them for the State Championships.

At States, the family excelled again. Grace finished fourth twice and took home a fifth and sixth place finish. Sam had a seventh place finish and two tenth place finishes, while Jonathan took home impressive second, third and eighth place finishes. With the points earned by each of the swimmers, the Burlington Tennis Club took home top honors over 21 other teams competing in the meet!

Congratulations to these hard-working swimmers!

Hinesburg School Board Seeks Budget Buddies

Greetings from the Hinesburg Community School Board! The beginning of the process to create the 2011-2012 school year budget is almost upon us. This year, we are seeking "Budget Buddies" to assist us in that process. "Budget Buddies" will attend all budget meetings of the School Board between November and January in order to participate in budget review and provide input into budget development. This work will culminate in the Annual School Meeting which will be held on March 7, 2011.

Our budget meetings are held at HCS in the Wainer Learning Center in the library beginning at 6:00 p.m. Each of these meetings usually last about two hours. The full schedule of regular and budget meetings can be found on the School Board page of HCS's website at <http://www2.cssu.org/hesvt/site/default.asp>.

We welcome your participation at all School Board meetings and would love to have you participate as a "Budget Buddy." If you are interested in being a "Budget Buddy," please contact Paul Lamberson, Chair at 482-4941. We hope to see you there.

Students to Perform Musical

The Viking Voice

October 21, 2010

Volume 6, Issue 1

This issue of The Viking Voice showcases the work of Mrs. Barbara Hodge and Mrs. Lisa Stanton's second grade classes. As you can see, they have been picturing Fall with their words and their crayons. Put your imagination to the test and see if you can picture the beautiful colors they used in their originals... Enjoy!

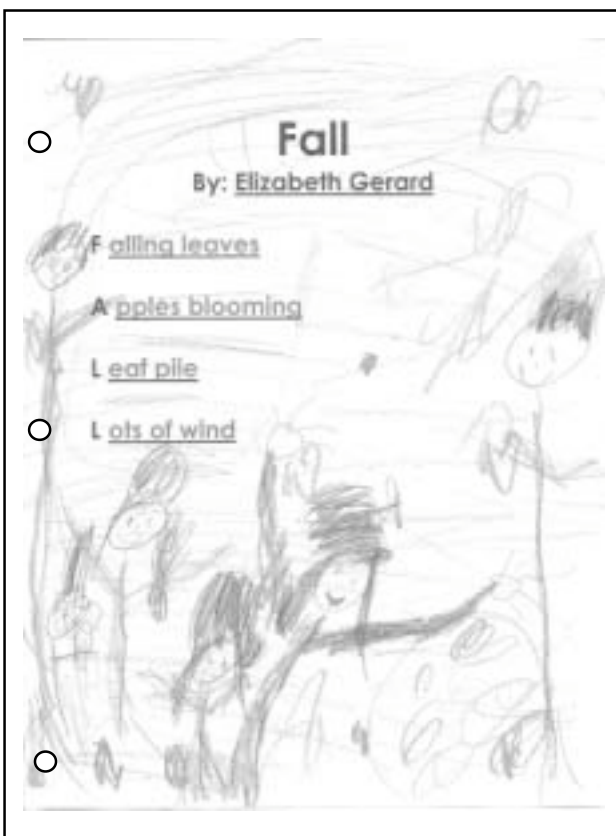

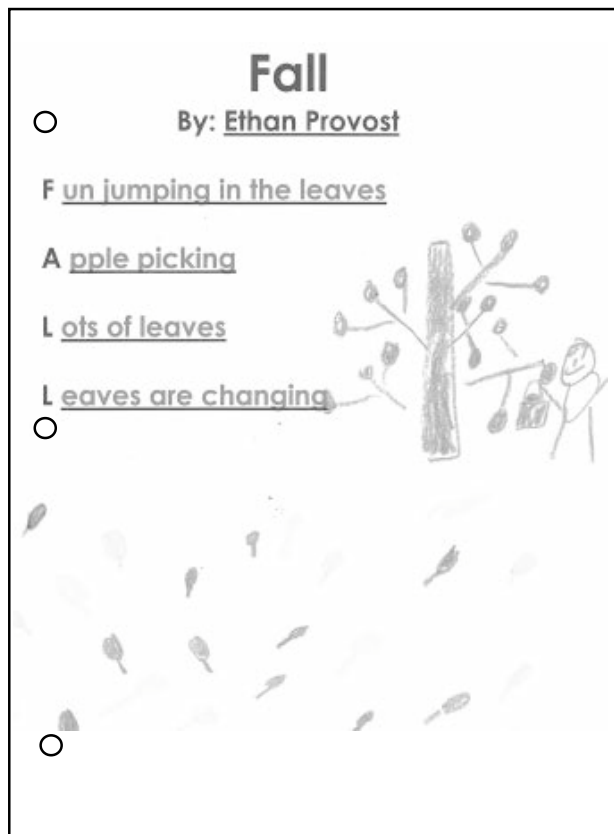

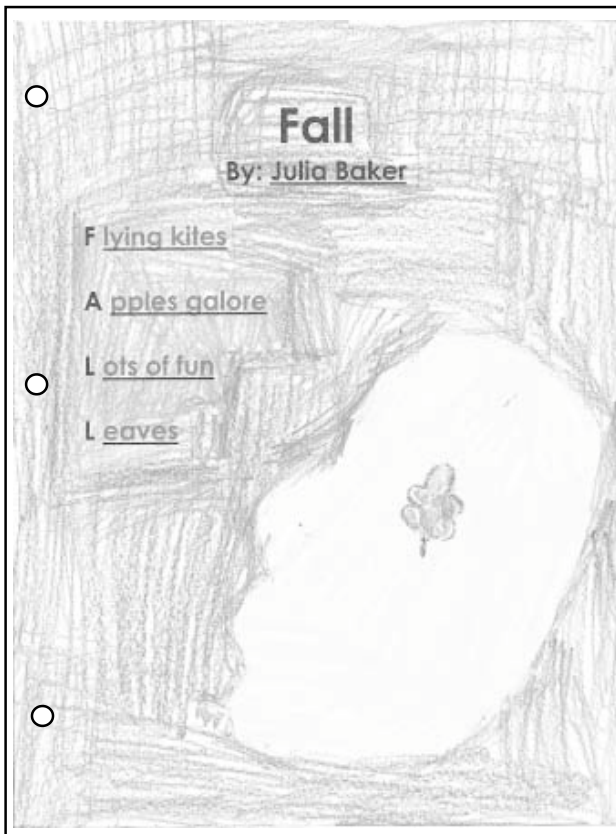

Did you know ...

... that Mrs. Stanton's and Mrs. Barber's classes have been lucky enough to release four monarch butterflies so far this year?

... and that Grandma Dee is their foster grandparent?

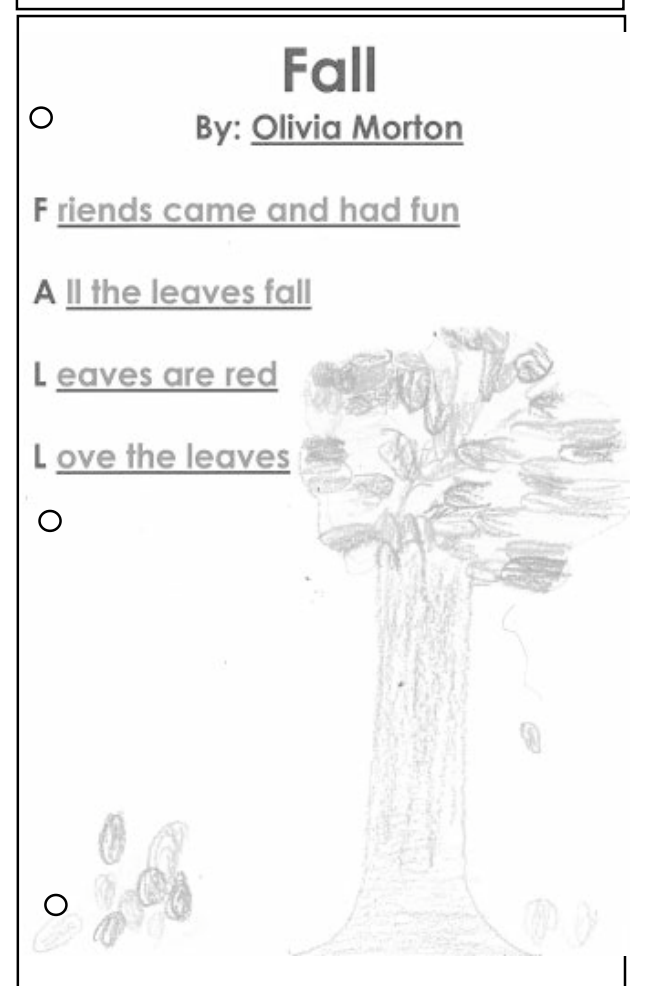

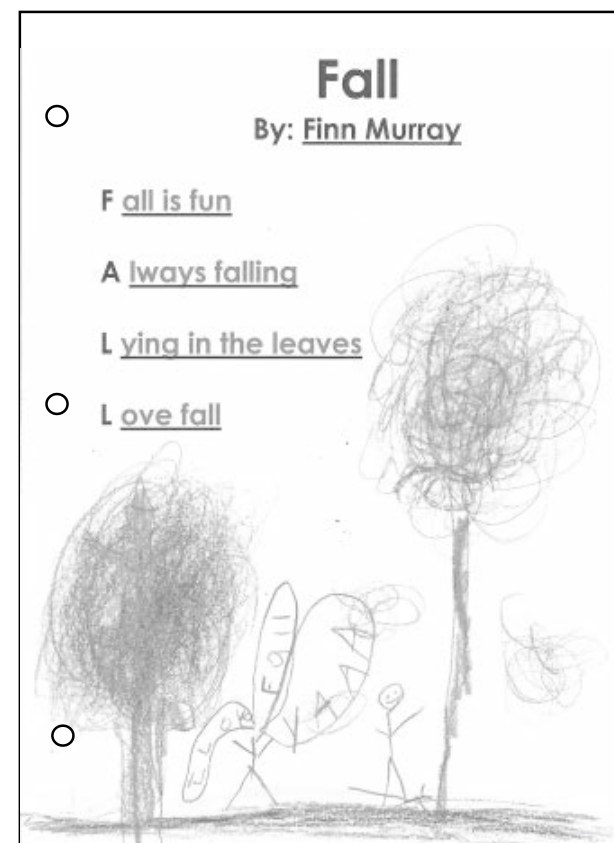

A place for HCS Students to express their learning and themselves.
A cooperative effort of the Hinesburg Community School and the Hinesburg Record.

Did you know ...
... that these students are currently learning about our own town of Hinesburg?

... that one of our paraprofessionals, Ali Wagner, regularly visits their class to read them Poppy, by Avi, at snacktime?

Did you know ...
... we love learning about the Presidents?
... that we ask each other presidential trivia at snack time?
... and that we know where President Chester A. Arthur's Hinesburg home is located?

To contact the students about their work in these pages ...

Fall Harvest at HNS

Fall is upon us, and the school year is in full swing. We're starting our second year as an HNS family, and we couldn't be happier to be back with the children, other parents, and our fantastic teachers, Liz Russell and Wendy Frink. For weeks this summer, we endured my son's near-daily breakfast queries: "How many days until I can go to school again?" I can tell you we're all much relieved the countdown is over!

Our classroom theme for the beginning of the year is the bounty of the Fall harvest. The children have been busily exploring flowers, seeds, and insects – including the largest millipede I have ever seen. Of course, my four-year-old was right in there picking it up to make sure Mommy could have a nice close look! With Wendy and Liz, the kids have been dissecting sunflowers, scooping squash seeds, enjoying fresh garden tomatoes and planting moss gardens. There's always something interesting at the activity table each morning, and I find myself as curious as the kids to see what it will be.

Thanks to all who participated in the "Flower Power" spring bulb sale fundraiser. We had a great response at our Harvest Festival table, with plenty of interest in the fundraiser and our school. These beautiful bulbs from Gardener's Supply will be arriving in mid-October, just in time for planting. Be on the lookout this month for HNS families planting bulbs around Hinesburg as part of our town beautification project, and feel free to get your hands dirty and join us in the fun!

We have a few spaces still available for Fall enrollment. Hinesburg Nursery School is a parent-run cooperative preschool providing a high-quality, nurturing environment for children ages three to five years from Hinesburg and surrounding communities. Contact Meri at 482-5331, or visit our website at www.hinesburgnursery.school.com.

CY Re-Launches Campaign to Prevent Underage Drinking

CY-Connecting Youths goal is to educate Chittenden South parents about their influence in reducing underage drinking. CY will be aligning their efforts and messaging with the Vermont Department of Health's Parent Up state-wide initiative.

CY first launched the underage drinking campaign last September after a 2009 CY web survey of parents found that while 95 percent of parents with eighth through twelfth graders believe that they do influence teen choices around alcohol use, only 52 percent of parents say they talk to their teen at least once a month about the dangers of drinking alcohol.

To promote positive change, CY designed a social marketing campaign to help parents understand that: it is not inevitable that teens will drink alcohol; it is in fact illegal to provide alcohol to minors, even your own children in your own home; and that parents are the primary influence in teen decision-making about alcohol use.

Thanks, in large part, to the local media and the communities of Charlotte, Hinesburg, St. George, Shelburne, and Williston, the 2009 campaign proved to be a success. According to intercept surveys, 81 percent of parents had heard about the campaign and 78 percent found the information to be helpful.

In June CY conducted a follow-up web survey of Chittenden South parents that showed several attitude and behavior changes, including:

- Increases in the number of parents who would not allow their child to attend a party if there was alcohol present.
- Increases in the number of parents who do not think it is okay for teens to drink alcohol.
- Decreases in the number of parents who think allowing teens to drink at home will help them drink responsibly.
- Increases in parents' knowledge of the laws and penalties surrounding underage drinking.

CY is re-launching the campaign with the goal to increase the number of parents who speak to their teenagers about alcohol at least once a month. This is the same goal of the statewide Parent Up campaign, and throughout the next several months, CY will encourage parents to know the risks and laws associated with underage drinking, to share this information with their teens, and to set clear no-use guidelines around alcohol use by teens.

To learn more about the Lead by Example or Parent Up campaigns, visit www.seewhy.info or www.parentupvt.org. If you have specific questions or concerns, you can also contact CY Program Director, Christine Lloyd-Newberry at (802) 383-1230, or cnewberry@cssu.org.

CY is a community based organization dedicated to creating a safe and healthy environment for young people. Operating out of the Chittenden South Supervisory Union, CY serves the communities of Charlotte, Hinesburg, St.

George, Shelburne, and Williston and is located online at www.seewhy.info and on Facebook at www.facebook.com/connectingyouth.

Vermont $1.1 Million Grant to Improve Health Outcomes

The Vermont Department of Health announced today that it will receive a $1.1 million per year for five years grant award from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) to strengthen the delivery of public health services.

The Vermont grant is part of a $42.5 million nationwide investment in public health made possible by the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (H.R. 3590), appropriated to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, and awarded by the CDC.

The CDC’s “Strengthening Public Health Infrastructure for Improved Health Outcomes” grant will enable the Health Department to better utilize health data to conduct community health assessments and implement best practices for health promotion and disease prevention.

The grant will also enable the Health Department to link public health data with electronic health records at provider offices statewide.

“We’re delighted with the award – it provides us with a real opportunity to strengthen public health programs that make a difference in the health and daily lives of Vermonters,” said Health Commissioner Wendy Davis, MD. “Achieving meaningful health reform is not just about reforming the health care delivery system, but must include sincere and sustained attention to effective population health and community-based prevention strategies.”

The grant will also strengthen the Health Department’s connection to the state’s health care reform initiative, Vermont’s Blueprint for Health. The Blueprint provides the information, tools and support that Vermonters with chronic conditions need to manage their own health, and that doctors need to keep their patients healthy.

The goal of the funding is to provide for expanded and sustained national investment in prevention and public health programs to improve health and help lower private and public sector health care costs.

Health Department Reports Increase in Pertussis Cases

The Vermont Department of Health has alerted health care providers statewide about an increase in the number of cases of pertussis, commonly known as whooping cough.

Nine cases of pertussis have been laboratory confirmed in Vermont, including five in the past two weeks. Pertussis is a highly contagious disease of the lungs caused by a bacterial infection.

“The number of cases of pertussis is not unusually high for this time of year, but it is a good reminder for parents, providers and school health officials to make sure children are fully vaccinated, and to look for symptoms of the disease,” said Health Commissioner Wendy Davis, MD. “Teenagers and adults should also check their records, since they are a frequent source of exposure to infection for infants and young children.”

School-entry laws in Vermont require a minimum of four doses of a pertussis-containing vaccine. When pertussis is identified in a school, letters are often sent to parents to inform them of the illness, describe symptoms of pertussis, and encourage parents to have symptomatic children examined by a health care provider.

The infection usually begins with mild upper respiratory symptoms and an irritating cough that gradually worsens to include possible whooping, short periods without breathing, or vomiting.

Serious complications from pertussis are most common among children under one year old, including pneumonia, encephalopathy (brain inflammation), and in rare cases, death.

Pertussis can also be contagious to people who were fully vaccinated as children but have not received a pertussis-containing vaccine in their teen or adult years. Immunity to the disease can wane over time. The adolescent/adult pertussis booster vaccine (Tdap) should be given one time to all Vermonters ages ten through 64.

The last widespread outbreak of pertussis in Vermont occurred in 1996 to 1997. A total of 280 cases were identified in 1996, including 171 cases in school-aged children in 69 Vermont schools. In 1997, there were 283 cases. In the past decade, the highest number of cases of pertussis was 254 in 2000.

For more information about pertussis, visit the Health Department website at healthvermont.gov.

Childhood Immunization Rates in Vermont Decline

Overall vaccination rates for children age 19 to 35 months remain high according to the 2009 National Immunization Survey just released by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC). However, in looking at children who have had all of the recommended and available doses of vaccines that protect against 14 life-threatening diseases, Vermont children are now below the national average, and the lowest in New England.

“Most children in Vermont are getting vaccinated,” said Health Commissioner Wendy Davis, MD. “But children need all of their doses of recommended vaccine to protect themselves and others from these preventable diseases. We know parents have many questions, and we want to make sure they have the answers they need. Vaccines are safe, effective and available.”

As recently as 2003, Vermont had one of the nation’s highest childhood immunization rates, however currently (2009), only 60 percent of young children in Vermont received all of the doses for all the vaccines recommended and available for their age group. The national average for vaccination rates among children was 70 percent.

Rhode Island (70 %), Maine (72 %), New Hampshire (73 %), New York (67 %), and Massachusetts (76 %) all had higher coverage rates than Vermont.

The recommended immunization schedule for babies includes vaccines that protect against the following diseases:

- Bacterial Meningitis
- Diphtheria
- Hepatitis
- Hepatitis B
- Influenza
- Measles
- Mumps
- Pertussis (whooping cough)
- Pneumococcal disease
- Polio
- Rubella (German measles)
- Tetanus (lockjaw)
- Rotavirus
- Varicella (chickenpox)

Vermont earned praise from the CDC in April for having the nation’s second highest vaccination rate for children ages six months to 17 years (72 percent) against the H1N1 influenza virus.

For more information on the immunization schedule and childhood vaccines, visit healthvermont.gov.

Infant Formula Recall Impacts Vermont WIC Program

The Vermont Department of Health is participating in a nationwide recall of a certain brand of infant formula. Small containers of Similac brand powder infant formula are being recalled by the manufacturer, Abbott, after traces of a small common beetle were detected in some of the products.

Similac powder is one of the formulas provided to Vermont families through WIC, the Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants and Children. The Health Department is advising health care providers statewide about the recall, and has ordered replacement formula for WIC families to be shipped overnight into the state and distributed to district offices.

Approximately 1,700 WIC families in Vermont may have received the affected Similac formula. WIC families who have the recalled product should keep it to exchange it with the replacement formula as soon as it is available from the Health Department.

Families who have received samples, or who purchased recalled products at stores can request replacement formula by contacting the manufacturer at <http://similac.com/recall/consumer>.

Similac liquid infant formulas are not included in the recall. For a full list of products that have been recalled, visit: www.similac.com/recall/

The WIC program provides foods to help meet nutritional needs of pregnant women, new mothers and children through age five. WIC offers incentives to women who breastfeed rather than use formula, providing them with more food and special support and nutrition services. Breastfeeding for a full 12 months and beyond is recommended by the Health Department as the best nutrition for infants.

WIC serves 16,500 people a month in Vermont. The Health Department also conducts clinics in more than 50 locations statewide.

Pain: It is not a Normal Part of Growing Older

Joe is 70 and his back pain has been keeping him awake at night for the last two years. Because of his restless sleep, he is often sluggish and cranky during the day. Joe’s family thinks it’s because he is getting “old” and that’s just the way it is. In the meantime, Joe has stopped playing golf, going out dancing with his wife and playing with his grandkids.

Living with chronic pain should not be a part of aging. As you get older, don’t assume that all you can do about pain is to “grin and bear it”. Yes, we may experience more pain in more parts of our body as we age due to arthritis, back problems, muscle aches, etc. But for the most part, pain is not strictly related to aging. When we are younger, we are probably less willing to tolerate chronic pain. Older people often feel that they don’t want to “complain” about their pain and that there is nothing that can be done about it anyway. Everyone, no matter what their age, should feel comfortable and not a hostage to their pain.

What can we do to manage pain, and better still, avoid pain as we get older?

Get up and get moving:

Our bodies need to be used in order to stay flexible. Will you be able to turn somersaults at age 80 like you did when you were seven? Most unlikely. Will you be able to walk without a walker or cane, or get around without the use of a wheelchair? The answer may well be yes if you continue to exercise and stay active.

Walk, walk, walk. Try to get out and walk for 15 to 30 minutes each day. It’s important to keep your legs strong. Strong legs help prevent falls and assist with good balance as we age.

Stretch: Simple stretches for your arms, legs, back and spine can help you to stay flexible and feeling good. They may be something you do at home or in a yoga class especially geared to gentle exercise. Stretching should not be painful. If you haven’t stretched in awhile, start off slowly in a chair, doing gentle arm raises and leg lifts.

Stay involved: Pain and depression often go together. One intensifies the other. Being involved in activities that divert your attention away from your pain can help you feel better and help avert the downward spiral of depression.

See your doctor: As a culture, Americans are used to taking a pill for what ails us. We are bombarded with ads for over the counter and prescription medications via television, magazines and newspapers. However, taking a “pill” for pain, especially if we take prescription medications, may result in unfortunate consequences.

For anyone experiencing chronic pain, it is important to see your doctor. Pain can be treated by the application of cold, heat, relaxation training and even biofeedback. If your pain requires medication, there are many over the counter drugs that your doctor may prescribe. However, even the old standby, aspirin, can interact with other medications and have unfortunate consequences. Do not use any medication without discussing it with your doctor.

Hopefully, you are not currently experiencing pain. But that makes it a great time to start using your body to help avoid problems in the future.

ARTS ENTERTAINMENT

Music Night at Brown Dog Books and Gifts!

Josh Brooks
Vermont’s Johnny Cash

Brooks effortlessly traverses the American roots spectrum, from touching folk ballads, to foot-stomping honky-tonk, country blues and roots rock. Brooks is “a storyteller on stage” and “a man with a great sense of humor” (Lisa Sammett, The Music Box) with “a voice that runs the gamut from boisterous to soulful to sweet” (Monadnock Ledger.) With four critically-acclaimed albums under his belt, Brooks is widely considered “one of the handful of Vermont artists with the sound, the original songs, and the voice to make the leap from local to national” (Vermont Public Radio)

With his jumbo Tacoma, toolbox full of harmonicas, and catalogue of original songs, Brooks has earned the respect and admiration of audiences and fellow songwriters throughout the region. Brooks has shared the stage with Shawn Mullins, Anais Mitchell, Stacey Earle, Ellis Paul & Tom Rush.

Music night with Josh Brooks, Friday October 22, at 7:00 p.m. Brown Dog Books and Gifts Firehouse Plaza (with Estey Hardware) Hinesburg Vermont 05461, 482-5189 (www.browndogbooksandgifts.com.) Free and open the public. For more information call 802-482-5189.

Shelburne Players Prepare Fall Production

Actors have been cast and have begun rehearsals for Shelburne Players’ fall production of 3 One Act Comedies.

Mindy and Bill Bickford of Williston are featured in Bruce Kane’s Caught in the act, a story of two lovers trapped in a one act play.

Jill Barr and Aaron Kindsvatter of Burlington star in Sure Thing by David Ives, a tale of making good first impressions more than once.

David Harcourt of Charlotte, Peter Espenshade of Shelburne, and Jill Barr take on roles in Woody Allen’s comedy, Riverside Drive, about a homeless man who stalks a writer he believes has stolen his life story for a screen play.

The three one-acts will be presented on November 12, 13, 14, 18, 19 and 20 at Shelburne Town Center. Tickets go on sale in October for $15 general, $10 seniors and students, and will be available in advance at Shelburne Supermarket, or can be reserved and held at the door via the website, www.shelburneplayers.com. Please check the website for updates and further details.

The Mellow Yellow Experience at Contois Auditorium

On Friday, October 22, The Burlington debut of the Mellow Yellow Experience will be performed at the Contois Auditorium, Burlington City Hall. The show is an immersive musical theatre production that transports audience members back to the time when Baby Boomers were coming of age. It features live music, dancers, outrageous costumes and a stunning video light show.

Since its inception last spring, the show has been touring New England with stops in some of Vermont’s most historic opera houses. “The Contois is a perfect venue to see the Experience because of the history and elegance of the building”, says Mellow Yellow singer David Cooper. Over the summer new songs, new wardrobe changes and new set pieces have all been added, including hand-made tie dye panels, each over eight feet high. Guitarist Ken French recreated the liquid light shows originally seen at the Fillmore West and Avalon Ballroom in San Francisco. “There was a lot more to it than I thought. Finding the right oils and colored dyes was difficult and I had to order the old fashioned clock glass online, but the result is worth it”, says French.

Mellow Yellow has gained a reputation for impeccable renditions of songs by The Beatles, The Monkees, Tommy James, The Supremes, the Moody Blues, and more. Vermont Maturity magazine called them “the most authentic sounding sixties band imaginable.” Video and audio clips are available on the band’s website, www.mellowyellowband.com.

The sixties may be over, but thanks to the Mellow Yellow Experience and their sponsors, Full Tank, Cruisin’ 93.7 and Burlington City Arts, audiences of all ages can hear the music, and feel the spirit, today.

The doors open at 7:00 p.m. and the show starts at 7:30 p.m.. Advance tickets are $13 general admission and $7 for students and are available at Viva Espresso in Burlington, Village Wine and Coffee in Shelburne and online at www.brownpapertickets.com. Tickets at the door are $18 and $10. Call 802-399-2589 or visit www.mellowyellowband.com for more information.

CVU Football Redhawks Soar into the Season

By Joe Cribari

The Champlain Valley Union High School (“CVU”) football program is soaring high in 2010. The Redhawks and the CSSU Buccaneers (feeder program for third through eighth graders) are hugely popular and their numbers are growing. In 2009, then in only its fifth year as a varsity program, CVU had its first win in a playoff game, advancing to the state championship game. The Varsity team is 3-0 in Division II (3-1 overall) and is currently in second place in the division, with playoffs hopes alive.

CVU dominated in defeating Burr and Burton’s Bulldogs 56-26 at home in their season opener. J.P. Benoit returned the second half kickoff 85 yards for what would prove to be the winning touchdown. Taylor Gingras and Kevin Lambert each caught touchdown passes. Tyler Barnes and Konnor Fleming each scored a touchdown rushing.

CVU suffered its first (and so far only) loss of the 2010 season September 10 at Essex High School. This was an exciting game despite the loss in which Redhawks fans showed their colors and made themselves heard. Taylor Gingras lead the Redhawks in receiving, pulling in five passes for 72 yards. Sophomore Ryan Beaudry had a 33 yard reception. Konnor Fleming scored CVU’s lone touchdown of the evening with a nice 39 yard keeper. Tucker Kohlasch kicked two field goals.

Suspense was the theme of the day as the Redhawks squeaked past the North Country Falcons 25-22 at home on September 18. Taylor Gingras caught the pass with 2:10 left in the game that put the Redhawks ahead for good. Fleming scrambled for the two-point after touchdown conversion to top it off. The Redhawks remaining scoring came on pass plays by Konnor Fleming to sophomores Ryan Beaudry and Tyler Barnes.

The Redhawks showed heart September 25 with a decisive 21-3 win over the Mount Mansfield Union (“MMU”) Cougars. J.P. Benoit scored all three touchdowns in this game. Benoit, wearing #17 instead of his usual #21, was unstoppable. He rushed 18 times for 115 yards and caught two passes for another 16.

“I’m wearing #17 in honor of my grandmother (Marilyn Palmer of Hinesburg) who just passed away,” J.P. said after the game. “That was her softball number – I have the sticker on my helmet too.”

Remaining regular season Varsity games are October 22 at Milton (7:00 p.m.) and October 30 against U-32. All games are at 1:00 p.m. except where noted.

The Redhawks are also looking strong at the Junior Varsity level (JV-A and JV-B). Through the first four weeks, JV-A has played and won two Division II games - beating Middlebury 22-14 at home September 20 and U-32 (in Montpelier) 18-7 September 27. The team is 2-2 overall. The remaining game is October 26 at Colchester (6:00 p.m.).

JV-B had a big 6-0 win for its season opener at home against Rice Memorial High School. The remaining game for JV-B is at home against Mount Mansfield October 27. All JV-B games are at 4:00 p.m.

The Redhawks football program has 88 players on the rosters between the three teams and includes the following Hinesburg students:

Freshman: Jake Stoll

Sophomores: Ryan Beaudry, Liam Casey, Cody Emmons, Sam Foutz, Anthony Gaynon, Jack Gingras, Cade Knudson, Josh Ramstrom, David Riesner and Patrick Shea

Juniors: Sam Fortin, Nathan Hall, Ross Harlow, Chad Hayden and Matt Titus.

Seniors: Dale Conger, Mike Cribari, Michael Fuller, Taylor Gingras, Nick Meunier and Eric Palmer.

Iroquois Soccer Club

Report from Kevin Lewis, Vice President

The Iroquois Soccer Club held its spring 2011 ‘tryouts’ and registration at the Hinesburg Community School on Saturday, October 16. For the first time registration was done on line, making the process streamlined and more efficient. In addition, new membership and increased volunteer efforts allowed cost savings to be passed on. Fees this year are as low as $100 per child.

It is not too late to enroll your child -- feel free to call Kevin Lewis at 482-4705 for details!

On Tuesday, December 2 in the Coordinator’s Office at Hinesburg Community School, Currently fall season began in September and Iroquois Soccer Club fielded four teams: U12 Girls, U12 Boys, U10 Girls and U10 Boys. Below is a report from one of them.

Report from Kevin Smith, Girls U10 Coach

The Iroquois Soccer Club U10 girls team practiced together this fall with hopes of participating in a new Vermont Soccer Association Fall league. Unfortunately the VISA could not get six teams in the U10 age group to commit to this endeavor. This did not dampen the spirit of Hinesburg team. The girls decided to continue practicing together and they did manage to play a few “friendly” games with the South Burlington Strykers. The team focused on improving soccer fundamentals through drills and small-sided scrimmages. They continued to improve throughout the season.

The team looks forward to the spring soccer league when they can play together in the Vermont Soccer League regular season and participate in several area tournaments.

Iroquois Soccer Club U10 Girls Team in action on Sunday the 17th of October at Essex Tree Farm against the Burlington Strykers.

Weddings

Mobbs-Curler

Genia May Mobbs, daughter of Ricky and Vicki Mobbs of Hinesburg, and Robert Walter Curler, son of Peter and Laurie Curler of Charlotte, were united in marriage on August 27.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Curler

Pastor, Kim Hornung-Marcy of the North Ferrisburgh United Methodist Church officiated the ceremony.

Jennifer Pike, best friend to the bride was the maid of honor. Sister of the bride, Alaina Mobbs and cousin of the bride, Danielle Mobbs were bridesmaids. Aysha Russell, cousin of the bride was the flower girl.

Gregory Armell, best friend to the groom, was the best man. Brother to the groom, Bradley Curler and cousin of the groom, Ryan Titus were ushers. Hunter Poquette, nephew of the bride and the couple’s lovable chocolate lab, Jager were the keepers of the rings.

The couple had many other helpers during their celebration. Renee Mobbs was a reader; Ryan Mobbs was an usher and candle lighter, and a very special song was sung by Katie Curler.

The couple honeymooned in the Bahamas and later returned to their home of residence in Charlotte.

Brittany Baker, Selected to be a Peer Tutor at Saint Michael’s College

Brittany Baker, daughter of Russell and Robin Baker of Hinesburg was named to be a peer tutor in the office of academic support programs at Saint Michael’s College. Baker, a senior, mathematics major, graduated from Mount Abraham Union High School.

Baker will tutor mathematics, through a program organized by Eliot Sloan, peer tutoring director. Tutors are selected on the basis of strong academic performance, recommendations by faculty members, enthusiasm for the subject, initiative and a desire to help others. They participate in orientation and ongoing training sessions. Peer tutoring is a program intended to supplement the assistance provided by Saint Michael’s faculty members.

“Peer tutors serve as mentors and share the experience of having gone through the course the client student is going through,” the director said. One student client said last spring, “I had a very good experience with a tutor this year; my only regret is that I didn’t get a tutor sooner.”

The tutor agrees to follow a code that includes the understanding that, “I may not have all the answers all the time, but I will work together with my client(s) to figure out how to make use of available resources.” And the client agrees to a code that includes the understanding that it is his or her responsibility to, “Honor the academic integrity policy of Saint Michael’s College and do my own work.”

A Lighter Moment

Hinesburg's On-Ramp

By Bill Schubart

Hinesburg people will be familiar with the unmarked Hinesburg exit and on-ramp to I-89. From Hinesburg you take the Hinesburg-Richmond road to Fayes Corner. This is a long stretch of uninhabited straight road through the woods with a reduced speed limit to accommodate local police units plagued by low crime rates.

At Fayes Corner one encounters a black and yellow sign resembling a sailor's knot. This explains the intersection. Take the Hinesburg I-89 entrance ramp, also called "Kenyon Rd." The gravel road ambles through a sparsely populated field, around a blind corner, through the front yard of a farm house over a blind rise in the road requiring on-rampers to miss the barn edge by 18 inches and off-rampers to miss the front porch by several yards to avoiding hitting one another. You then pass over some chiropractic washboard, "nature's speed bumps" as locals call them, before coming to the highest point. This is where the fun begins.

After passing an overgrown farmhouse nicely refurbished with blue tarps and bungee cords, you suddenly confront a chasm that will remind older skiers of the unrepentant Nose Dive in Stowe. A sign riddled with bullet holes says 25 mph. This is funny, as a winter descent offers no traction. Imagine skiing Mt. Washington's headwall in your Volvo. You just steer as your bloodless hands grip the steering wheel. A successful descent, as in giant slalom, means making all the turns.

In early spring, when road crews have reamed the Mini-Coopers and Smart Cars out of the drainage culverts, one often sees whitewater kayakers on either side of the road waving to terrified drivers. A successful descent is marked by passage through the I-89 underpass at the bottom, easily recognizable by the battered ski racks and mountain bikes littering its low overhead girders.

The rest of the route to I-89 is idyllic, emerging on to Rte 2 and crossing the placid Winooski River. There is a traffic light and an underpass and then I-89 comes into view with its well designed Park and Ride where cars are often parked on top of one another or vertically to accommodate the myriad commuters ride-sharing from the Hinesburg on-ramp. The rest of the trip is easy as one accelerates into the I-89 artery.

There has been much talk of improving the Hinesburg exit, but as with the Nose Dive in Stowe, to do so would only increase traffic and lessen the challenge that Hinesburgers have endured for so long. Like other Vermonters, they disapprove of frivolous government expenditures like replacing the new exit signs on I-89 with new exits signs on I-89 that break when you hit them, or like removing natural rock formations in the median so college students, invincible in their four-wheel drive Cherokees, can maintain 70 miles an hour on black ice as they careen down the median strip upside down.

Maybe those feds could help us by just hiring ski trail groomers to maintain Hinesburg's entrance to I-89?

October is Archives Month

Governor Jim Douglas has proclaimed October as Archives Month in Vermont. This is part of a national celebration of the importance of historical records to our lives.

"Historical and archival records document our rights and obligations; provide information about our family histories and genealogies; offer context to current issues; and allow us to examine our history," says Secretary of State Deb Markowitz.

Historical records are available across our communities in Vermont. They are in municipal clerk offices, local historical societies and libraries, museums, in the special collections of our colleges and universities, and in the state archives.

This year, the Vermont State Archives and Records Administration (VSARA) is asking for “archives stories.” Greg Sanford, State Archivist, says, “This is an opportunity for Vermonters to share moments in which a historical record opened their eyes to something about their lives, their research, or the world around them.”

To submit a story, contact Greg Sanford at gsanford@sec.state.vt.us or (802) 828-3700. These paragraph-length stories will be posted on the VSARA website. To see these stories go to <http://vermont-archives.org/>.

Bald Eagle Shot in Troy, Vermont

Officials are seeking information to aid an investigation into the shooting of a juvenile bald eagle off Vermont Route 100 in the town of Troy, between East Hill Road and Routhier Road, on or about Sept. 5.

Anyone with information should call the Vermont Fish and Wildlife Department Operation Game Thief 24-hour hotline at: (800) 75-ALERT (800) 752-5378, or report online anytime at <http://www.vtfishandwildlife.com> and click on the Operation Game Thief link. Callers may remain anonymous.

Vermont State game wardens and special agents of the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service are conducting a joint investigation into the incident. The Service is offering a reward of up to $2,500 to the person or people who provide information leading to a conviction under the Bald and Golden Eagle Protection Act.

Local residents discovered the injured bald eagle and notified the Vermont Fish and Wildlife Department. The Vermont Institute of Natural Science in Quechee, a licensed wildlife rehabilitation facility, is caring for the eagle. Examination of the eagle revealed it had been shot with a shotgun and sustained a fractured wing and other injuries. Rehabilitators are hopeful that the wing will heal well enough for the eagle to fly again and eventually be released into the wild.

In addition to the Eagle Act, state laws and the federal Migratory Bird Treaty Act protect bald eagles. Until 2007, bald eagles were also protected under the Endangered Species Act.

Muzzleloader Antlerless Deer Permit Winners Announced

The winners of Vermont’s muzzleloader season antlerless deer permits are listed on the Vermont Fish and Wildlife Department’s website (vtfishandwildlife.com).

“Hunters who applied for muzzleloader antlerless deer permits and will be participating in the October 2 to 24 and December 4 to 12 archery season may want to check our website to find out if they will be receiving a muzzleloader season antlerless permit,” said Fish and Wildlife’s Chief of Operations Thomas Decker. “Knowing the answer will help them in planning their hunt.”

“More than 6,000 muzzleloader antlerless deer permits are still available across nine Wildlife Management Units,” said Decker. “They are being made available in order to meet deer management goals and keep the deer population in balance with its habitat.”

Hunters are able to purchase these un-allocated permits until they are gone on a first-come-first serve basis on the department’s website (www.vtfishandwildlife.com) at $10 for residents and $25 for nonresidents.

“Hunters who do not have internet access at home may want to use a friend’s computer or go to a nearby library to get online,” said Decker. “We also will provide internet access here at our Waterbury office for those who want to travel to apply in person. If you must travel to Waterbury, you should call Fish and Wildlife at (802) 241-1271 to verify which, if any, permits are still available.”

Antlerless deer permits were still available in the following WMUs on September 24: A-B-F1-F2-K1-K2-M1-M2-N.

Hunters - Help Keep Deer Healthy

The Vermont Fish and Wildlife Department is asking hunters to help keep Vermont deer healthy by avoiding the use of deer urine-based attractant scents.

The infectious agent of Chronic Wasting Disease (CWD), a fatal disease of deer, is a mutant protein or “prion” that can be passed in urine. This mutant protein can bind to soils and remain infectious for many years. Some captive deer facilities producing urine products for hunting have not complied with mandatory disease prevention and monitoring regulations. The products they are producing may, as a result, be capable of transmitting diseases such as CWD.

CWD is fatal to deer and moose and has been impossible to eliminate once it has been fully established in a population. CWD has not been detected in Vermont after several years of testing brain tissue samples from dead deer.

Dr. Shawn Haskell, Vermont’s state wildlife biologist in charge of deer, says that if CWD is ever detected in Vermont, local deer numbers would have to be greatly reduced to remove the disease before it becomes established. This reduction would have to be done for at least five years.

More information about Chronic Wasting Disease can be found in the Big Game Management Plan, on the Vermont Fish and Wildlife Department’s website, and at www.cwd-info.org.

Vermont’s Archery Deer Season Starts

Hunters are enthusiastic about Vermont’s upcoming October 2 to 24 and December 4 to 12 archery deer hunting season, according to the Vermont Fish and Wildlife Department.

In Vermont a hunter may take up to three deer in a calendar year in any combination of seasons (Archery, Youth Weekend, November Rifle Season, December Muzzleloader). Of these, only two may be legal bucks, and only one buck may be taken in each season. A “legal buck” is a deer with at least one antler having two or more points one inch or longer. All three deer in the annual bag limit may be antlerless deer.

A hunter may take up to two deer in Vermont’s archery season with two archery licenses. Only one may be a legal buck, but both can be antlerless deer if hunting in any Wildlife Management Unit (WMU) except WMU-E, where antlerless deer hunting is prohibited.

In order to purchase an archery license, the hunter must show a certificate of satisfactorily completing a bow hunter education course, or show a previous or current bow hunting license from any state or Canadian province, or sign an affidavit that they have previously held an archery license.

Vermont’s license fees are less than fees in many other states. Hunters must have a standard hunting license in order to purchase an add-on archery deer hunting license, except that nonresidents may purchase an “archery only license” costing just $60.

Shooting hours are one-half hour before sunrise to one-half hour after sunset.

Tree stands and ground blinds may only be built or used if the hunter has landowner permission. This includes portable as well as permanent stands and blinds. A hunter constructing or using a stand or blind must permanently mark his or her name and address on it so that it may be conveniently and easily read. Landowners are exempted from this requirement.

On Vermont State Wildlife Management Areas, it is illegal to use nails, bolts or screws, including screw-in climbing steps, or wire, chain or other material that penetrates through the bark.

Because additional restrictions apply, hunters are urged to read the entire law governing the use of stands and blinds on page 20 of the “2010 Vermont Guide to Hunting, Fishing and Trapping” which is available online and where licenses are sold.

Hunters who are planning their first Vermont archery deer hunting trip or who are looking for new hunting areas should get a copy of two publications, both available on Fish and Wildlife’s website (vtfishandwildlife.com) under Hunting and Trapping and then “Big Game”. The 2009 White-tailed Deer Harvest Report, gives the number of deer taken in each town in archery, rifle and muzzleloader deer hunting seasons. “Vermont’s Archery Deer Regulations 2010” provides the archery season regulations.

A Hunter Information Kit containing both reports and other information is available from the Vermont Fish and Wildlife Department, 103 South Main Street, Waterbury, VT 05671-0501. Telephone (802) 241-3700. Email them at (fwinformation@state.vt.us).

Vermont hunting and archery licenses may be purchased on Fish and Wildlife’s website (vtfishandwildlife.com).

Food Shelf

Parishioners are asked to be generous in bringing non-perishables, canned, and dried food for the Hinesburg Food Shelf. Food collection baskets are in the entry for your convenience. On the third Sunday of each month parishioners are asked to make an extra effort to bring donations for the Food Shelf.

631 North Pasture Lane in Charlotte VT

At the end of a private road with access to miles of trails on which to run, bike or cross country ski this small piece of heaven is a must see. Just 20 minutes from Burlington, this energy efficient three bedroom home features an open floor plan with butternut paneling and ceramic tile radiant flooring creating a warm and welcoming environment. Upstairs find two carpeted bedrooms and an office with built in cabinets and bookcase. A large wrap around deck is perfect for those sunny days. Two solar trackers create electricity to cover your needs along with a Panton stone chimney for your wood stove or a 98% efficient propane boiler for the radiant floor. $559,000

MIKE BRANON

VERMONT STATE SENATE
CHITTENDEN COUNTY

Mike's Kitchen Cabinet Plans a Winning Strategy

Mike Branon will bring new, fresh ideas to Montpelier

- On reducing property taxes
- On reducing spending and taxation
- On helping businesses thrive and prosper, creating new job opportunities
- On keeping energy costs low, while developing new, clean, green energy sources

Mike is a 6th generation Vermonter. The father of a daughter and two sons, he lives with his wife, Nancy, in south Burlington. Nancy is Director of Project Development at BlueCross BlueShield of Vermont.

Mike earned B.S. and M.S. degrees after attending Holy Cross and the State University of New York. He taught English, coached high school football & baseball, and spent 7 years coaching football at Boston College.

As a successful businessman and entrepreneur for over 20 years, he has had extensive experience managing employees and staff. Mike currently owns and operates Mountain Lake Cottages, a seasonal resort on Lake Willoughby. He is a 2003 Ronald Regan Gold Medal Award recipient and has served in the U.S. Army National Guard.

Please answer the need

*A pound of pasta: the shape's up to you,
Canned whole tomatoes, 16 ounces will do.
Sauce for the pasta, and maybe a can,
6 oz, of tuna, chicken, or ham.
Peanut butter, fruit jelly,
Corned beef hash, ravioli
Cereal, canned fruit, macaroni & cheese,
Beans: baked, yellow, or green if you please
64 ounces of apple juice, too,
Of course any canned soup will do!
Our neighbors are hungry,
Please show that you care—
When they come for groceries
The food will be there!
Bring food or donations, we'll thank you for all
Please answer the need with gifts big or small.*

HINESBURG BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATION OFFERS
FREE JOB SEARCH AND POSTING SERVICE

By Jean Isham, HBPA

The Hinesburg Business and Professional Association (HBPA) has added to its web site space for area businesses to post employment openings and for area residents to post requests and/or resumes when seeking jobs. The service is free of charge to members and non-members. The Association encourages area businesses and job seekers to use the site. Expanded usage will enhance the value of the site to the community.

To access this service simply go to the HBPA web site, hinesburgbusiness.com, and click on the appropriate option: Seek A Job;
Post A Job; Search Resumes; Post Resume. We think you will find the application easy to use. If you do not have ready access to a computer, access may be available through your local library.

If you have any questions about this site or its use, contact Robert Stahl at bstahl2@gmail.com or at 482-3137.
